La Cuisine

Provençale

While in the south of France on a recent antique buying trip, Kim fell in love with the beauty and charm of the historic village of Saint Remy. During her trip, she stayed in a wonderful, quintessentially French vacation home and threw herself into the local culture even taking in a cooking class from a local chef, Jane Satow of La Cuisine Provencale. As fate would have it, and being a chef and restaurateur herself, Kim loved the class and she and Jane became fast friends.

Jane is an American, living every American girls dream of cooking her way through Europe. For more than 20 years, Jane has lived in Provence and traveled Europe immersing herself in the culinary delights of every region. She is a an amazing chef and now shares her culinary experiences through her business, La Cuisine Provencale, in her charming French kitchen in Saint Remy, where she offers authentic French cooking classes to celebrities and travelers from across the globe.

Kim & Jane have come together to create a magical 5-day ladies' tour of Provence, celebrating their shared love of French antiques, cuisine and the refined Provence lifestyle. This tour includes their favorite places including gorgeous markets, boutique and antique shopping, cooking classes in Jane's charming kitchen, and French wine tastings. It's the best of the best.

This tour will be a fabulous time for all, and a lovely way to visit and shop this quaint part of the world, expertly guided by Jane and Kim, together with like-minded ladies who share a passion for shopping and dining.

This tour combines everything Jane and Kim love about Provence and the French lifestyle. And best of all, they will be your guides throughout your adventure, sharing an abundance of knowledge about Provence, French antiques, French cuisine, wine, culture and a joie de vivre!

Note on travel arrangements:

If you are planning to spend a few days in Paris on either end of this trip, then we suggest you fly directly to Paris and then take the TGV High speed train from Paris down to Avignon. The TGV train departs from the Gare de Lyon which is a 30-45 minute train, taxi or bus ride from Charles Du Gaulle airport. The TGV train from Paris Gare de Lyon to Avignon is 2 hours and 45 minutes.

From Avignon you are just 25 minutes from St Remy de Provence by taxi. The train can be booked on-line through the sncf web site, and should be done in advance. We can help schedule the taxi pickup and will coordinate ride shares with the other ladies in the group.

Alternatively if you want to skip Paris you could fly into Marseille international airport, which is about a 1 hour drive from St Remy de Provence - again we will help coordinate taxis for those who come into Marseille.
